About Asian LifeSkills

Asian LifeSkills is a learning community hub for people from all walks of life in Asia. We offer more than 100 courses of skills training and higher education to corporate, youth and social groups. The list of courses is increasing every day. At Asian LifeSkills, we select and present our courses with passion and purpose. Our passion is training and education, and our purpose is to awaken in our members a sense of the New Asian identity, and of each individual's privilege to live a more meaningful life.

Our home is in Asia, and we take pride in being part of the progress around us. While we guard our performance standards with well proven Asian values, we set our sights on global trends. Our people are both local and international, and we build our reputation by respecting cultural values across all boundaries.

Based in Singapore, with growing branches all around the region, Asian LifeSkills challenges the people who wish to advance themselves in various fields, for academic or career pursuits. Our offices provide professional training and educational courses to benefit those who aim to enrich their knowledge, enhance skill abilities and improve quality of life.
